Associate Director's Report:

In her oral report Ms. Humphrey provided updates on the upcoming 2019 Health Summit and the St. Clair County Suicide Prevention Alliance. Ms. Humphrey will be leading a work group at the Summit. She also commented on recent Redeploy grant activities and significant progress in streamlining State billing procedures.

Executive Director's Report:

Mr. Rosenzweig expounded on his written report regarding the status of SB 2106 which would take 20% of the collected mental health levy and deposit it in a fund for the Sherriff to use for mental health services at the jail. The bill failed to move from first reading at a Local Government committee meeting earlier this week. It appears the bill is now dead for this General Assembly session. Mr. Rosenzweig provided testimony in opposition to the bill at the hearing. He also updated the Board on the status of the State's decision to not renew the grant of DDS of Metro East. He has been working with Representative Hoffman in efforts to reverse the decision which is scheduled to be effective July 1, 2019.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS:

President Patty Shevlin welcomed the guests and offered them the opportunity to address the Board: Jody Gardner, SWIC, PSOP; Trudy Baxter, EFGSI; Heather Freed, BBBS; Dianna Cuddeback, Heartlinks; Tammy Eberle, VPCSWI.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 6:40 pm.
The next board meeting will be April, 18 2019 at 6 pm.
